Support world-class training from the best seat in the house

Guildhall School is one of the top institutions for performing arts in the world, home to more than 1,000 students training to be the great musicians, actors, and production artists of the future. You can support this training by naming a seat in one of our state-of-the-art performance venues.

Whether it's to celebrate a special occasion, your passion for the arts, a connection with the School, or to remember a loved one, by taking your seat you are supporting the next generation of talented, emerging artists, whilst becoming part of the fabric of our institution.

"Naming a seat was a wonderful way to commemorate my grandparents. Knowing my support was enabling the training of the artists I saw on stage was so satisfying!"

Melissa Scott, Guildhall School Trustee

For a donation between £1,000 and £5,000 your chosen dedication will be engraved onto a brass plaque and fixed to a seat in one of our theatres or concert halls for the next 10 years.

In addition to your plaque, you will receive a certificate thanking you for your support and stating the seat number, location, and plaque inscription, and your name will be credited on our website.
