

Terms and Conditions for Guildhall Short Courses & Summer Schools

Contents

1. Acknowledgements	2
2. About Us and How to Contact Us	3
3. Bookings.....	3
4. Accuracy of Booking Data	4
5. Minimum Requirements.....	4
6. Minimum Age Requirement	4
7. Fees and Payment.....	4
8. Cancellation and Refund Policy	5
8.1. Your cancellation rights	5
8.2. Cancellation and Changes to Courses by Short Courses	6
9. Late Applications	7
10. Events outside Our Control	7
11. Our Right to End the Contract	8
12. Non-attendance.....	8
13. Registration.....	8
14. Code of Conduct	8
15. Residential Participants	9
16. Safeguarding	9
17. Your obligations.....	9
18. Assessment and Credit	10
19. Access Needs	10
20. Online Short Courses	10
21. Health and Safety	11
22. Insurance	11
23. Complaints.....	11
24. Use of Data	11
25. Photographic and Video Consent	12
26. Feedback.....	13
27. Liability.....	13
Appendix 1: Participant Code of Conduct.....	14
Appendix 2: Sundial Court – Residential Code of Conduct	19
Appendix 3: Online Short Courses and Forums Etiquette.....	23

1. Acknowledgements

By submitting an application to Guildhall School of Music & Drama, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

I acknowledge that in these Terms, the following expressions will have the following meanings:

"Booking" means your application or booking for a place on the Short Course that is made through submitting your Booking Form and payment; your booking enters you into a binding contract with us to purchase a place on the Course.

"Booking Date" means the date you submit your Booking Form as part of the Booking process;

"Booking Form" means the online Booking Form or Application Form;

"Course" means the short course and mode of study set out on the Website which includes any of the short courses (online or in person, summer schools or evening courses) that you agree to undertake;

"Data Protection Laws" means the European Union Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC, any national laws or regulations implementing that Directive, the General Data Protection Regulation EU 2016/679 ("GDPR") (when applicable) and any national laws or regulations constituting a replacement or successor regime to GDPR;

"Event Outside Guildhall School's Control" means an event or circumstances beyond Guildhall School's reasonable control, such as:

(a) strikes, lock-outs or other industrial action by third parties;

(b) strikes, lock-outs or other industrial action by our employees;

(c) civil commotion, riot, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not) or threat or preparation for war, fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, adverse weather, subsidence, or other natural disaster or "act of god";

(d) failure of public or private telecommunications networks;

(e) pandemic, epidemic and any restrictions or requirements that might be imposed by any Government or relevant authority, and will include, for example, any disruption caused as a result of COVID-19; and/or

(f) decisions made by any Government or relevant authority or regulator that impact on our ability to perform our obligations under the Contract, including, for example, any changes made by any Government regarding examination results;

"Fees" or "Course Fees" means the short courses fees and administration fees payable by you in relation to the Short Course as well as Sundial residential accommodation fees when applicable;

"Guildhall School" means Guildhall School of Music & Drama

"Online Course" means a Short Course that Short Courses delivers online;

"Participant" means the person who has made a booking onto a Course, or the person who will attend the Course if the booking has been made on their behalf, or the person enquiring about a Course;

"Personal Data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable person ("data subject"); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;

"Sensitive Personal Data" means data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation;

"Services" means the teaching services and related teaching materials that Short Courses will provide in relation to the Course;

"Short Courses" or "Short Courses Team" or "We" means the Guildhall Short Courses Team responsible for the development, organisation and delivery of the short courses and summer schools;

"Short Courses Office" means the address of short course office as provided in the joining instructions or sent before you commence the Course;

"VLE" or "Online" means the online virtual learning environment that Short Courses uses to deliver its Online Short Courses.

"Website" means Short Courses pages on the Guildhall School website at gsmd.ac.uk/shortcourses

"Writing" or "Written" includes emails.

"You" refers to the person who has made the booking or is enquiring about a Course.

2. About Us and How to Contact Us

2.1. Guildhall Short Courses and Summer Schools are delivered by the Guildhall School Open Programmes Team at Guildhall School of Music & Drama, Silk Street, Barbican, London EC2Y 8DT. Guildhall School of Music & Drama is part of the City of London Corporation.

2.2. Guildhall Short Courses office hours are 9.30am-5pm (GMT/BST) Monday to Friday except Bank Holidays. Please note that office hours may differ when delivering Courses.

2.3. You can contact Guildhall Short Courses as follows:

By email: shortcourses@gsmd.ac.uk

By telephone: 10am-4pm (GMT/BST), Monday to Friday, except bank holidays: +44 (0)20 7382 2310 / +44 (0)20 7614 9850

By post: Short Courses, Innovation Office, Guildhall School of Music & Drama, Silk Street, Barbican, London EC2Y 8DT

3. Bookings

3.1. Your Booking enters you into a binding contract with us to purchase a place on the Course. We are free to accept or decline your Booking at our discretion.

3.2. At the point of our confirmation, a Contract will come into existence between you and Guildhall School. The Contract will continue until the completion of the Short Course, unless it is cancelled earlier in accordance with the cancellation terms.

4. Accuracy of Booking Data

4.1. By submitting your Booking, you confirm that all information provided to Guildhall School is correct. Guildhall School reserves the right to review and cancel any Booking if any information provided is found to be incorrect.

5. Minimum Requirements

5.1. Participants should take note of any specified minimum requirements before booking a Course or accepting an offer, these may include minimum age, English language ability, experience, physical stamina, course materials or instrument specialism. Please be aware that if you book onto a Course without being able to meet the minimum requirements, we will not be able to honour your Booking.

5.2. Participants are responsible for ensuring they have the right equipment and materials as stated in the course information.

5.3. Participants are responsible for ensuring that they have the correct immigration status or visa to study in the UK (not applicable for online short courses).

6. Minimum Age Requirement

6.1. You understand that Short Courses cannot accept your Booking or Application if you are aged under 18, unless the Course is specifically advertised as being for persons under the age of 18.

6.2. If the Course is advertised as being for persons under the age of 18 and a Booking or Application is submitted for the Course, you acknowledge and accept that at the point you receive the confirmation, a contract will exist between your parents and/or guardians (on your behalf) and Guildhall School. You understand and accept that this only applies if you are under the age of 18 and successfully submit a Booking or an Application for a Course advertised as being for persons under the age of 18.

6.3. By submitting your Application for any Course not advertised as being for persons under the age of 18, you accept that you warrant to Guildhall School that you are aged 18 or over. You accept that if this warranty turns out to be incorrect, the Short Courses Team will be entitled to cancel the contract on written notice to you.

6.4. If you are accepted onto a Course that is specifically advertised as being for persons under the age of 18, you accept that any reference in these terms to your liability will also mean the liability of your parents and/or guardians and such liability is joint and several which means that Guildhall School can recover any losses, overdue fees or any other costs that it is entitled to recover under these terms from you or your parents and/or guardians.

7. Fees and Payment

7.1. The Fees payable are published on the website.

7.2. Fees are listed and payable in GBP. If you are paying in a different currency, you are responsible for any additional transaction fees associated with an international payment.

7.3. Payment in full is made at the time of Booking and before the start of the Course. Your Booking is not completed until the Fees have been paid and your place is not secured on the Course or in Sundial until all Fees have been received. We are unable to reserve a place on a Course.

7.4. For any Courses where payment can be made in instalments, payment deadlines must be met in accordance with the published dates. For specific Course deadlines please refer to the individual Course pages on the website. If the payment is not received within the deadlines agreed then your place will be cancelled.

7.5. Short Courses does not offer credit agreements. Therefore payment must be made in full before the first day of the Course.

7.6. Short Courses reserves the right to withdraw the offer of a place if any outstanding Fees are not paid by the designated deadline.

7.7. From time to time Short Courses may offer promotional offers or discounts on Courses at their discretion:

7.7.1. Only one discount may be claimed per Participant, per Booking.

7.7.2. Discounts may be withdrawn by Short Courses at any time.

7.7.3. Discounts must be used at the time of Booking and will not be applied retrospectively.

7.7.4 Discounts and special offers cannot be cumulated, only one discount can be redeemed per booking.

7.7.5. Discounts links and offers are not transferable. You cannot share the discount offer and your link.

7.8. Participation Bursaries (as part of our Access and Participation Plan) are available on selected Courses to those who meet the eligibility criteria. Further information can be found on the Participation Bursaries webpage.

8. Cancellation and Refund Policy

8.1. Your cancellation rights

8.1.1. If you are a consumer and you are not entering into the Contract for purposes connected with a business, then you have legal rights under the Consumer Contract Regulations 2013 to cancel the Contract within 14 days (the "Cancellation Period") of the date of conclusion of your Contract (the date you book your Course). You accept that the Cancellation Period will expire 14 days after the date of the Booking (the date you book your Course).

8.1.2. If you wish to cancel your Booking within the Cancellation Period and request a refund, please send an email to shortcourses@gsm.ac.uk within 14 calendar days of the date of your (first) payment.

8.1.3. However, you acknowledge that if the Course begins during the 14-day Cancellation Period, you will be liable for the Course Fees for any part of the Course that takes place until we receive your written confirmation of cancellation. As a result, Short Courses will be entitled to deduct a reasonable sum for the Services provided based on the proportion of the Course that has started from any refund payable to you.

8.1.4. You may also cancel the Contract after expiry of the Cancellation Period. You accept that in these circumstances you will remain liable for the Course Fees and will not be entitled to a refund of the Course Fees paid except in the circumstances laid out in paragraph 8.1.5. below. Please note that you cannot transfer the fees to another course.

8.1.5. If you provide the Short Courses Team with written notice to cancel your Booking outside of the Cancellation Period but at least 21 days before the Course starts, you will be entitled to a refund of the Course Fees paid minus a 25% administration fee. To request a refund, please email shortcourses@gsm.d.ac.uk stating which Course you have booked on to, your name and reference number.

8.1.6. If you provide the Short Courses Team with written notice to cancel your Booking outside of the Cancellation period and fewer than 21 days before the Course starts, you will not be entitled to any refund of the Course Fees or to transfer the fees to another course. You must notify the Short Courses Team by email to shortcourses@gsm.d.ac.uk.

8.1.7. Once a Course has started we are unable to offer any refunds and the Fees become fully non-refundable. This covers all possible reasons that you may seek a refund including due to ill health or Covid-19 of yourself or a family member, issues with technology (for online courses), failure to obtain a visa, if you change your mind, travel or transport disruption etc. Non-attendance at classes due to reasons other than Guildhall School's default does not entitle you to refunds, extra tuition or a transfer.

8.1.8. If you have booked residential accommodation at Sundial Court as part of your Course attendance, the same cancellation & refund policy and cancellation periods apply as laid out in paragraphs 8.1.1 to 8.1.7

8.1.9 We will not refund any travel, equipment, materials or external accommodation you have purchased to attend a Course. We strongly advise you to purchase the appropriate insurance cover for any travel or accommodation booked prior to the course commencing. Travel/external accommodation costs will not be reimbursed, regardless of whether you cancel your Contract/Booking, or we cancel the Course.

8.1.10 Where a refund is due:

8.1.10.1 We will process the refund according to the method of payment used to make the Booking. If you request a refund more than six months after your Booking, you will be required to send us your bank details. Under the GDPR, we cannot store this information for longer than six months.

8.1.10.2 Refunds will be paid in GBP. We are not responsible for any losses you suffer as a result of currency fluctuations.

8.1.10.3 Please allow 10 working days for a refund to reach your account.

8.2. Cancellation and Changes to Courses by Short Courses

8.2.1. Where possible we endeavour to run all our Courses as advertised. However, Guildhall School reserves the right to reschedule or cancel a Course. Reasons for this may include, but may not be restricted to, low enrolment numbers, weather warnings and tutor/lecturer availability.

8.2.2. Courses will only commence if we receive the minimum number of bookings on the Course. In the event that the minimum number of participants required is not achieved by 7 days before the Course begins we will unfortunately need to cancel the Course.

8.2.3. Should a Course be unable to run we may cancel our contract, and we will endeavour to inform you no less than 7 calendar days before the Course starts, in which case you can either:

8.2.3.1. Transfer onto an alternative Course, subject to availability (and receive a partial refund of the Course Fees if the Fees for the alternative Course are less than the Course Fees you originally paid or be charged for the difference between the Course Fees if the alternative Course is more expensive); or 8.2.3.2. Cancel the Contract and receive a full refund of any Course and Sundial Court fees paid.

8.2.4. In the event of cancellation, Guildhall School is not responsible for any additional costs you may have incurred, including costs for travel, materials, equipment or external accommodation. We strongly advise you to purchase the appropriate insurance cover for any travel or accommodation booked prior to the course commencing. Travel/external accommodation costs will not be reimbursed, regardless of whether you cancel your Contract/Booking, or we cancel the Course.

8.2.5. Refunds will be paid in GBP. We are not responsible for any losses you suffer as a result of currency fluctuations.

8.2.6. In the case of package bookings where only one of the two Courses is cancelled, we will reimburse the difference between the full price of the Course running and the package booking price.

8.2.7. We will endeavour to deliver the Courses as publicised. However, we reserve the right to make changes to the Course as follows:

8.2.7.1. Publicised course tutors, artists and guest speakers (web and print form) may be subject to change.

8.2.7.2. The timetable for the delivery of the Course may be subject to change.

8.2.7.3. Dates and locations for delivery of the Course may be subject to change.

8.2.7.4. We may make changes to the Course which are necessary to ensure it complies with any applicable laws or requirements.

8.2.8. In the event of any changes to the Course, we will endeavour to give as much notice as possible.

8.2.9. In the event we are unable to run a session as part of a Course, we will make every reasonable effort to either reschedule the session or extend the remaining sessions to cover the missing hours.

9. Late Applications

9.1. You accept that if you submit your Booking or Application within two working days of the Course commencing, the Short Courses Team will not be able to guarantee that the confirmation will reach you before the Course starts. You understand and accept that in these circumstances, you may not receive Course specific details prior to the Course commencing and the Short Courses Team will use reasonable endeavours to provide you with confirmation by phone or email and to provide you with the Course specific details as soon as possible.

9.2. You accept that if you submit your application within two working days of a Course commencing and your Booking or Application is accepted, if you do not receive a response from the Short Courses Team setting out your joining instructions and login details for the course within 24 hours; it is your responsibility to contact the Short Courses Team and check the status of your Booking or Application.

10. Events outside Our Control

10.1. Guildhall School shall not be responsible for any failure to perform or delay in performing our obligations under the Contract that is due to an event outside our control. If an event outside our control takes place which affects our obligations under the contract then:

10.2. We will contact you as soon as reasonably possible to notify you.

10.3. Our obligations under the contract will be suspended for the duration of the event outside our control.

10.4. We will restart the services as soon as possible when the event outside our control is over and it is safe and appropriate to do so.

11. Our Right to End the Contract

11.1. We may end the Contract if:

11.1.1. You do not make payment to us, before the start of the Course, or within your agreed payment plan schedule or in accordance with published payment deadlines.

11.1.2. You do not have a satisfactory visa or do not maintain an immigration status that entitles you to undertake the course.

11.1.3. You have a high number of absences and the tutor feels this is affecting your learning and affecting the learning of others.

11.1.4. You disrupt the course and the tutor feels this is affecting your learning and affecting the learning of others.

11.1.5. There is a breach of the Participant Code of Conduct or the Residential Code of Conduct – See Appendix 1 and Appendix 2 for further details.

11.1.6. If we end the contract due to any of the reasons outlined above, you will not be entitled to a refund.

12. Non-attendance

12.1 Non-attendance at classes due to reasons other than our default does not entitle participants to refunds, extra tuition or a transfer.

13. Registration

13.1. You must register at the start of the Course on the first day of the Course. Further course information including registration information will be sent to you prior to the start of the course. If you have any enquiries please email shortcourses@gsmd.ac.uk. For participants under the age of 18, parents and guardians will be sent a consent and release form to complete before the start of the Course.

13.2. If you fail to complete the registration process required documentation such as valid identification (passport/birth certificate/driving licence) and other (completed under 18 residential/non-residential code of conduct and parental release form), your Contract will be terminated and no refund will be issued.

14. Code of Conduct

14.1. Please refer to the Participant Code of Conduct (Appendix 1).

14.2. Parents and guardians of participants under the age of 18 will be sent consent and release forms that need to be signed and returned prior to the start of the Course.

14.3. The School expects all participants to conduct themselves at all times in an orderly manner, respecting the rights, privacy and property of others. Due to the content of the work undertaken, which may include age appropriate themes and material, participants will be required to demonstrate high levels of maturity whilst participating in their chosen course. The Short Courses Team reserves the right to remove any participant from a course and accommodation with immediate effect, if they are found to be in breach of the Codes of Conduct, or their behaviour is such that it results in property damage, endangering others or self or impedes the progress of other participants. Participants will be held financially responsible for any damages.

15. Residential Participants

15.1. Please refer to the Sundial Court Code of Conduct (Appendix 2).

15.2. Parents/guardians of residential participants under the age of 18 will be sent consent and release forms that need to be signed and returned by participants' legal guardians prior to their check-in to Sundial Court.

15.3. The School expects all participants to conduct themselves at all times in an orderly manner, respecting the rights, privacy and property of others. Due to the content of the work undertaken, which may include age appropriate themes and material, participants will be required to demonstrate high levels of maturity whilst participating in their chosen course. The Short Courses Team reserves the right to remove any participant from a course and accommodation with immediate effect, if they are found to be in breach of the Codes of Conduct, or their behaviour is such that it results in property damage, endangering others or self or impedes the progress of other participants. Participants will be held financially responsible for any damages.

16. Safeguarding

16.1. Guildhall School is committed to Safeguarding, you can read our Safeguarding Policy to find out more.

17. Your obligations

17.1. Maintain and evidence your immigration status that entitles you to undertake the Course;

17.2. Attend classes for the Course regularly and on time. Inform the Short Courses Team if you are going to be late or miss classes/sessions;

17.3. Must have sufficient English language skills to cope with course demands;

17.4. Do not use audio or visual recording equipment during classes or practical sessions;

17.5. Comply with Guildhall School's Health and Safety rules as notified to you, including by wearing suitable clothing and footwear for practical classes;

17.6. Comply with the Participant Code of Conduct and the Sundial Court Code of Conduct;

17.7. Conduct yourself in a respectful and courteous manner and refrain from causing offence or nuisance to Guildhall School, its staff or other participants;

17.8. Have the equipment and materials required for the Course as stated on the website or in the course information when applicable;

17.9. Only use any facilities and equipment provided by Guildhall School during the stated hours for the delivery of the Course; and 17.10. Do not provide access to, or share login details or content of the courses with any third parties.

18. Assessment and Credit

18.1. All Short Courses and Summer Schools are non-accredited.

18.2. You will receive a digital certificate of completion issued in the name specified in your booking form at the end of the Course if you have attended at least 80% of the sessions on the Course.

18.3. For online Courses, non-attendance of any classes of the Course cannot be substituted by viewing archives.

18.4. Certificates of attendance will be issued digitally. You accept that if you require a certificate to be posted, you will be required to provide a stamped addressed envelope.

18.5. For Short Courses and Summer Schools in person or online, Guildhall School will only issue digital certificates of attendance and not certificates of attainment of a particular grade, qualification or standard. Should you wish to use your participation on a Short Course as credit for a University or College course you are undertaking, this would be a matter for you to agree with your current institution.

18.6 Unfortunately, we are unable to offer assessments but can provide confirmation of attendance.

19. Access Needs

19.1. If you have any access needs that require reasonable adjustments, please contact the Short Courses Team to discuss your requirements before booking your place on a Short Course. Please note that not all spaces are accessible and reasonable adjustments will be made when possible.

19.2. Please note that the details you disclose will be passed on to the Course Tutor(s) and Short Courses Assistants or the Chaperones team to ensure that we can accommodate your needs.

20. Online Short Courses

20.1. In order to undertake an Online Short Course with Guildhall School, you should be able to write and edit documents, send and receive email, find your way around online, download files and use online forums. You should also be aware of the essentials of computer security to keep your data and personal information safe. We will send out instructions on how to use any platform required to take part in the course.

20.2. Guildhall School are not responsible for any technical problems you encounter due to your personal equipment or user error. We are unable to provide technical or content support other than that highlighted in the course information.

20.3. We will endeavour to ensure that online resources are accessible at all times throughout your Online Short Course. However, we cannot guarantee uninterrupted availability, and may suspend access for the purpose of maintenance, upgrades or emergency repairs.

20.4. You agree that you will not record, reproduce, download, modify, re-publish, sub-license, sell, share, broadcast, transmit, make available, disseminate or distribute in any way any of the content provided as a part of your Online Short Course. Any redistribution or reproduction of part or all of the contents of the courses in any form is prohibited.

20.5. You may download and use Online Short Course materials where available, for your own personal, non-commercial use only.

20.6. When uploading material, you must ensure that you are entitled to upload this material and that this does not infringe any rights or copyright law.

20.7. You will not upload or share with other students or tutors any material which is unlawful or unsuitable according to societal norms in the United Kingdom or our policies. This includes uploading of material that is false, obscene, sexist, racist, homophobic, defamatory, illegal, abusive, threatening, extremist, destructive (like malware, viruses, bugs, etc.) or otherwise discriminatory, offensive, disruptive or objectionable to others.

20.8. You agree that we shall be under no obligation to monitor, screen or censor any of the content that you or any third party upload to the online platforms used for the Short Course. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we accept no responsibility for any such content.

20.9. We reserve the right to suspend access to the VLE or remove any material you upload or share with other participants or tutors in breach of these Terms.

20.10. The Online Short Course materials may contain links or embedded links to third party content and websites. These links are provided for your reference only and we do not endorse the content or the operations associated with them. We have no control over such content and cannot accept any liability for such third party content. You should be aware that accessing such content will be subject to third party terms of use and privacy policies.

20.11 Online Short Courses consist of live sessions and are not recorded. Recordings of sessions may be arranged for reference purposes only but this is at the discretion of the Short Courses Team and the Tutor(s).

20.12. Please refer to the Online Short Courses and Forums Etiquette (Appendix 3).

21. Health and Safety

21.1. Some of our courses are physically and mentally rigorous and require high levels of stamina. Please refer to the designated pages on the Guildhall School website for course-specific health and safety information.

21.2. Guildhall School fully recognises and accepts its responsibilities with regards to health and safety. However, it is also incumbent on all participants to be mindful of their own health and safety and the health and safety of others, and understand that they should not, either through action or inaction, put themselves or others at risk. Participants should follow all instructions from staff and observe all signage.

22. Insurance

22.1. Guildhall School has public liability insurance. It is recommended that participants take out insurance cover, including cover for theft and the loss of fees in the event of illness or accident.

23. Complaints

23.1 If you have any complaints about the services, you should raise this by contacting the Short Courses Team.

24. Use of Data

24.1 You agree to Guildhall School processing personal data contained in your booking form, or other data which the School may obtain from you or other people, for purposes connected with your studies, health and safety or for any other legitimate reason. For more information please refer to the Innovation & Research Events Privacy Notice PNEK18.1 and the Innovation & Research Events Record Retention RREK18.1.

24.2. Guildhall School is committed to upholding your privacy and taking care with the personal information that you may give us. From 25 May 2018, we process your personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations (or GDPR for short). Guildhall School will process personal data contained in this form or otherwise supplied by yourself or other people, for purposes connected with your studies, your health and safety, or for any other legitimate reason connected to your studies. Any information supplied by a participant that is found to be false or misrepresented may lead to expulsion from the School.

24.3 Privacy statement: GSMD processes personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. For full details of how and why the GSMD processes personal data, please refer to our full privacy notice. City of London Corporation is a data controller, and processes personal data in accordance with the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. For full details of how and why the City of London Corporation processes personal data, please refer to the full privacy notice. Alternatively, you can request a hard copy. Please direct all data protection queries to the Information Compliance Team at information.officer@cityoflondon.gov.uk. GSMD will process personal data as requested for the purposes of internal analysis, public reporting, research, marketing and fundraising in respect of our activities. All information collected about you will be stored securely and will not be shared with anyone without first being anonymised, unless we have sought express permission to attribute your views to you. We may share your data in a non-aggregated and anonymised form with third party project partners. We consider very carefully which organisations we partner with and put a contract in place that sets out our expectations and requirements, especially regarding how they manage the personal information they have collected or have access to. Please note you can withdraw your consent to this processing at any time by contacting: shortcourses@gsmd.ac.uk.

25. Photographic and Video Consent

25.1. We use and retain photographs and videos of participants of all ages from our courses for promotional purposes. By giving us your consent in the course application form, you agree to let us use photograph(s) and video(s) of yours and/or your child's participation in the course, for publicity for the School and/or the City of London.

25.2. Photographs and video taken during courses, events, rehearsals, productions and concerts may be used by the School for publicity purposes. All photographs, video and audio remain the property of Guildhall School.

25.3 The unauthorised use of professional equipment for photographing, filming, recording or transmitting (by digital or other means) any audio, visual or audio-visual material is strictly forbidden. For activities open to external audiences such as end-of-course concerts, attendees give their express consent to their actual or simulated likeness to be included within any film, photograph, audio and/or audio-visual recording to be exploited in any and all media for any purpose at any time throughout the world. This includes filming by the police or security staff which may be carried out for the security of attendees.

25.4. Any personal photographs or video recordings you take during your course are strictly for private use and must not, under any circumstances, be posted on the internet or be used publicly in any way.

25.5. Online sessions may be recorded for reference purposes only by the Short Courses Team and will not be shared outside of your course.

25.6. Guildhall School follows national guidance for the use of images of children and young people. The School takes all steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes for which they are intended, which is the promotion and celebration of the activity of our participants. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately, you should inform us immediately.

26. Feedback

26.1. At the end of the Course, the Short Courses Team will email you to ask for your feedback on the Course.

26.2. Privacy statement: GSMD processes personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. For full details of how and why the GSMD processes personal data, please refer to our full privacy notice. City of London Corporation is a data controller, and processes personal data in accordance with the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. For full details of how and why the City of London Corporation processes personal data, please refer to the full privacy notice. Alternatively, you can request a hard copy. Please direct all data protection queries to the Information Compliance Team at information.officer@cityoflondon.gov.uk. GSMD will process personal data as requested for the purposes of internal analysis, public reporting, research, marketing and fundraising in respect of our activities. All information collected about you will be stored securely and will not be shared with anyone without first being anonymised, unless we have sought express permission to attribute your views to you. We may share your data in a non-aggregated and anonymised form with third party project partners. We consider very carefully which organisations we partner with and put a contract in place that sets out our expectations and requirements, especially regarding how they manage the personal information they have collected or have access to. Please note you can withdraw your consent to this processing at any time by contacting: shortcourses@gsmd.ac.uk.

27. Liability

27.1. Guildhall School does not accept liability for personal injury or the death of any participant. The School does not accept any liability for the loss or damage of any property belonging to participants, and will not take charge of personal items left behind at the end of the summer school.

27.2 COVID-19: There is a risk of the transmission of COVID-19 in any environment where people gather. This risk increases in enclosed spaces and with increased numbers of people.

The safety measures that have been introduced and are changing with UK government guidance are intended to minimise the risk of contracting COVID-19 but this risk cannot be completely eradicated. By attending a Course or booking accommodation in Sundial, you are acknowledging that an inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 exists in any public place where people are present. Participants and residents attending a Course or staying in Sundial acknowledge that they do so at their own risk.

Appendix 1: Participant Code of Conduct

It is essential that all participants are safe and behave in line with the School's expectations as can be found in the Code of Conduct below. This also includes any safety protocols and restrictions put in place due to COVID-19.

Guildhall School of Music & Drama cannot assume parental responsibility for a participant under the age of 18. Participants and their families should bear in mind that the School is an adult environment. We expect responsible, reasonable and sensible conduct from all our participants. Whilst the School recognises its special duty of care to participants who are under 18, it will expect such participants to act responsibly and appropriately.

1. Introduction

1.1. The School's jurisdiction under this Code is not limited to its own premises. The Code includes misconduct occurring in any place to which a participant is guaranteed access by virtue of their status as a participant. This would, therefore, include external trips, classes taking place in external venues, etc.

2. General conduct

2.1 The School expects participants to conduct themselves at all times in an orderly manner, respecting the rights, privacy and property of others.

2.2 No participant shall engage in conduct which amounts to the improper interference, in the broadest sense with the proper functioning of the School, those who work or study within it, or its reputation. Such interference will be regarded as misconduct, examples of the types of behaviour that will be construed as misconduct are given in Appendix a. (The list is not intended to be exhaustive.)

2.3 Specific regulations exist with respect to accommodation, use of computing, Library, and other School facilities and equipment. Participants are required to observe these regulations. In some circumstances failure in such observance may also result in the matter being pursued under this Code at which point this Code takes precedence.

2.4 The School expects participants to follow any procedures and processes put in place related to COVID-19.

3. Contact details

3.1 It is the responsibility of participants to keep the School informed of their current home and address, email, and phone number of parent/guardian during their short course at Guildhall School. International participants are asked to provide a UK emergency contact number when possible.

4. Facilities and Environment

4.1. Each participant is expected to show respect for the environment by helping to ensure that the School premises are not damaged or disfigured by litter, unnecessary noise or other pollutants.

4.2. Animals are not permitted on School premises, except for guide dogs for disabled participants and authorised visitors.

4.3. Furniture, equipment and other property owned or leased by the School must not be removed from the building without proper authority. Anything moved in contravention of this regulation may be recovered without notice by authorised staff. Those responsible may be liable for recovery costs.

4.4. No participant shall wilfully damage or deface, or wrongfully treat as their own, any property owned or leased by the School. A participant will be required to make good in whole or in part, to the satisfaction of the School, any damage of this kind that they cause, in addition to any other penalty imposed.

4.5. No participant shall wilfully damage, or wrongfully treat as their own, the property of any other person on School premises. The School accepts no responsibility for private property lost or damaged on School premises.

4.6. Members of School staff have authority to check breaches of the rules of discipline. If a member of staff feels it necessary, the member of staff may require a participant, whose conduct is believed to be in breach of this Code, to withdraw from any room or facility affected by the conduct in question. The participant may also be expelled from the course and the Sundial Court Hall of Residence if they are a residential participant.

5. Smoking

5.1. Smoking creates a health and safety hazard. Guildhall School buildings are non-smoking and candles or any other similar burning or smoldering materials are forbidden. The policy also extends to all courtyards in Sundial Court. Electronic cigarettes may be used in the designated smoking area of the courtyard in Sundial Court and on the Lakeside but not in internal communal areas in the School.

5.2. Smoking in the School's buildings is a serious offence and disciplinary action will be taken if a participant is found to be in breach of this code.

6. Drugs

6.1. Drugs are not tolerated anywhere in any part of any buildings. More information can be found on the Government's website: <https://www.gov.uk/penalties-drug-possession-dealing>.

6.2. Participants are not allowed to use any of the premises to be used for any illegal or immoral purposes including the possession, supply and the misuse of drugs covered by the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.

6.3. Participants are not allowed to bring, or keep on site any drug associated paraphernalia. Anyone found with illegal substances will be immediately reported to the police and given notice to leave their course and the accommodation, and no refund will be given.

7. Alcohol

7.1. It is strictly prohibited for anyone aged 18 or over to buy, give to or share alcohol with participants under the age of 18. Any participant aged 18 or over found to be or suspected of supplying under 18s with alcohol will be immediately excluded from their course, and from Sundial if they are a residential participant, no refund will be issued.

7.2. It is strictly prohibited for participants under the age of 18 to buy, consume or be sold alcohol.

7.3. Any participant under the age of 18 found with alcohol will be immediately excluded from their course and from Sundial if they are a residential participant, no refund will be issued and the participant's parents/guardians will have to make arrangements to collect the participant immediately.

8. Misconduct, Bullying and Harassment

8.1. All participants are expected to act within the law, for example with regard to offences against persons or property, or possession of illegal substances.

8.2. Any form of harassment or bullying, including the racial, sexual or religious harassment of any participant, member of staff or other employee of the School, or any visitor to the School will result in disciplinary action.

8.3. Participants bringing any mobile devices with internet access should respect other participants right to privacy. Any misuse such as internet bullying of other participants and/or viewing/sharing inappropriate content will result in disciplinary action being taken.

8.4. Improper interference, in the broadest sense, with the proper functioning or activities of the School, or with those who work or study in the School; or action which otherwise damages the School, or action that deviates from accepted institutional, professional, academic or ethical standards, will be regarded as misconduct and an infringement of these regulations.

8.5 Where alleged misconduct could also constitute an offence under the criminal law special provisions will apply and the School's own disciplinary investigations or proceedings may be delayed until such time as the police and/or courts have completed their investigations and proceedings. However, the School reserves the right to proceed with a disciplinary case where it feels it has sufficient information to do so without waiting for the completion of the police investigation.

8.6. Any complaint about the conduct of a participant whether made by a member of staff or by a member of the public, or by one participant about another, shall be considered in the light of the rules laid down in this Code. However, allegations from parents, relatives or friends, on behalf of a participant who chooses not to make an allegation themselves, cannot be pursued under this Code (except where the participant concerned is a minor).

Examples of breaches of the Code of Conduct

The following exemplifies the behaviour and conduct which would constitute a breach of the Short Courses Code of Conduct, although not exclusively:

- a) Disruption of the academic, administrative, recreational, social, or other activities of the School.
- b) Obstruction of the functions, duties or activities of any participant, member of staff or other employee of the School or any authorised visitor to the School.
- c) Behaviour which restricts the legitimate freedom of speech, ideas, actions, or inquiry of any other participant or member of staff.
- d) Behaviour which is in breach of School regulations on health and safety, smoking, or eating and drinking on School premises.
- e) Behaviour which brings the School into disrepute – including antisocial behaviour in and around the Sundial residence.
- f) Violent, indecent, disorderly, threatening or offensive behaviour or language whilst on School premises or engaged in any School activity.
- g) Malicious damage to School property which includes inter alia, the hall of residence, School managed property, Students' Union property or the property of any participant, member of staff or visitor.

h) Unauthorised access to School information systems or IT networks, or permitting or causing unauthorised access by others.

i) Conduct, including the possession or use of drugs or other illegal substance, which constitutes a criminal offence, where that conduct:

- took place on School or School managed property, or
- affected or concerned other members of the School community, individuals or groups in related School organisations or partner institutions and organisations, or
- damages the good name of the School, or
- poses a danger to other members, or to the good order, of the School community.

j) Any breach of the School's Equal Opportunities Policy including sexist, racist or homophobic activity or behaviour.

k) Any form of harassment*, including the racial, sexual or religious harassment of any participant, member of staff or other employee of the School or any visitor to the School.

* Harassment

Harassment is unwarranted, unwelcome and uninvited behaviour, which is intimidating, offensive or distressing to the recipient/s. Sexual, racial and/or disability harassment occurs when the harassment is motivated by or related to the sex, race, or disability of the recipient.

Examples of harassing behaviour are:

- Offensive gestures, language, gossip or jokes.
- Insulting or abusive behaviour or comments.
- Physical contact, ranging from an invasion of personal space and/or inappropriate touching, to serious assault.
- Display of sexually aggressive, pornographic, racist or otherwise offensive pictures or other material, or the transmitting of any such messages or images via electronic mail.
- Intentional isolation or exclusion.
- Humiliating or demeaning behaviour and/or persistent criticism.

l) Sexual misconduct, including but is not limited to:

- Attempting to engage, or engaging in, sexual intercourse or other sexual act without consent
- Sharing the private sexual material of another person without consent
- Kissing without consent
- Touching inappropriately through clothes without consent
- Inappropriately showing sexual organs to another person directly or indirectly (eg through digital means)
- Making unwanted remarks of a sexual nature.
- Upskirting (taking a picture under a person's clothes without them knowing with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification or cause victim humiliation)

- m) Behaviour which would be likely to cause fear, distress or offence to others.
- n) Failure to comply with written policies and directions.
- o) Theft, fraud, deceit, deception or dishonesty in relation to the activities/documents of the School or the property of the School or its staff or other participants of the School.
- p) Failure to follow a reasonable instruction from a School officer, including failure to disclose your name and other relevant details in circumstances when it is reasonable to require that such information is given.
- q) Failure to comply with a previously imposed penalty under this Code or other School regulation.

9. Missing participant

Should a participant under the age of 18 not turn up for a lesson/not return at the required time/go missing we will follow the School's missing participant protocol which includes contacting parents/guardians/designated emergency contacts and also the police in cases where the child is not located after search and phone contact attempts. It is therefore vital that we have two contact numbers for those with parental responsibility for a child to ensure we can safely manage such an incident.

10. Disciplinary action

Any illegal or inappropriate behavior by a participant or if a participant is in breach of the Code of Conduct or the Sundial Code of Conduct will result in serious and disciplinary action being taken by the Short Courses Team.

The Chaperones Team will report any issues arising in the residential accommodation to the Short Courses Team.

Actions can result in the immediate exclusion of participants from the course and the accommodation; no refund will be issued. They may also from be banned from attending further Guildhall School Short Courses.

If the participant is under the age of 18, it is the responsibility of the participant's parents/guardians to make arrangements to collect the participant immediately.

Appendix 2: Sundial Court – Residential Code of Conduct

It is essential that all residential participants are safe and behave in line with the School's expectations including in Sundial Court as can be found in the Code of Conduct below.

Guildhall School of Music & Drama cannot assume parental responsibility for a participant under the age of 18. Participants and their families should bear in mind that the School is an adult environment. We expect responsible, reasonable and sensible conduct from all our participants. Whilst the School recognises its special duty of care to participants who are under 18, it will expect such participants to act responsibly and appropriately.

The Chaperones and the Lead Chaperone are the first point of contact for residential participants in Sundial during their short course at Guildhall School. The Chaperones will supervise all participants under the age of 18 in Sundial and they will contact the Lead Chaperone immediately if any problems occur that require attention during their stay in Sundial.

1. General

1.1. While staying at Sundial Court, no Sundial Court residents shall engage in conduct, that brings Guildhall School of Music and Drama into disrepute.

1.2. Sundial Court residents are expected to act within the law, for example with regard to offences against persons or property, or possession of illegal substances.

1.3. No Sundial Court residents shall engage in conduct which interferes or attempts to interfere with:

- the right of any visitor or member of staff to pursue his or her proper functions.
- the right of any person properly invited onto School premises to carry out the purpose of his or her visit.
- the right to freedom of speech or lawful assembly within School premises.

1.5. Sundial Court residents are expected to show respect for the environment by helping to ensure that School premises are not damaged or disfigured by litter or other pollutants.

1.6. Any form of harassment or bullying, including the racial, sexual or religious harassment of any participant, member of staff or other employee of the School, or any visitor to the School will result in disciplinary action.

1.7. Sundial Court residents bringing any mobile devices with internet access should respect other participants right to privacy and need of sleep. Any misuse such as internet bullying of other participants and/or viewing/sharing inappropriate content will result in disciplinary action being taken.

2. Evenings

2.1. All participants under 18 must be on Sundial Court premises by 9pm and will need to sign in by 9pm with the Chaperones Team in Sundial.

2.1.2 For residents aged under 16:

You cannot leave the Sundial Court premises outside of course activity and must remain on Sundial Court premises (unless chaperoned evening activities are scheduled or a leave of absence has been approved).

2.1.3 For residents aged between 16 and 18:

You must be back on Sundial Court premises by 9pm and remain on site from that point on (unless chaperoned evening activities are scheduled or a leave of absence has been approved).

2.2. All residents must be in their own flats by these times according to their age group:

- Under 13: by 10pm
- Ages 14-15: by 10:30pm
- Ages 16-17: by 11pm

3. Under 18 and Adult Sundial Court residents

3.1. Sundial Court residents or non-residential participants under the age of 18 cannot be present in the flats or bedrooms of Sundial Court residents aged 18 or over. Sundial Court residents under the age of 18 are not permitted to enter any other flats except their own.

3.2 Sundial Court residents or non-residential participants aged 18 or over cannot be admitted to the flats or bedrooms of Sundial Court residents under the age of 18.

3.3. Under 18 Sundial Court residents are not allowed in each other's flats. This also applies to other Sundial Court residents/non-residential participants who are a family member. In case of emergency they will need to be supervised by a Chaperone.

3.4. 18 Sundial Court residents under the age of 18 can socialise in common areas such as the basement or the courtyard in Sundial.

3.5. All residents under the age of 18 are lodged in single sex flats.

4. Externals/Non-residential

4.1. It is forbidden for external guests or non-residential Short Course participants to have access to the Sundial premises (including common spaces such as the basement and courtyard) and be admitted the flats and bedrooms of the Sundial Court residents (under-18s or adults).

5. Noise

5.1. No Sundial Court residents shall create or cause to be created excessive noise which could cause discomfort, inconvenience or annoyance to others within Sundial Court or the environs thereabout, including occupants of residential premises in the vicinity of Sundial Court.

5.2. Noise is to be kept to a minimum after 10pm.

6. Chaperones

6.1. Chaperones will be stationed in the Silk Street and Milton Court reception areas throughout the day in case participants wish to find them during their free time between classes. In early mornings, evenings and nights: the Chaperones and the Lead Chaperone will be in Sundial Court and will act as the first point of contact for the residents. Details on how to contact them while in Sundial will be communicated to all residents when they check in Sundial.

6.2. There may be optional chaperoned activities organised on evenings and weekends, details will be announced on the first evening of the residents' stay. These activities are optional and may incur an additional fee.

6.3. There is a security guard stationed in the Sundial Court reception 24/7. If any participant were to feel in danger or witnessed threatening behaviour, they should talk to the security guard immediately who will be able to assist.

7. Facilities

As required by the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, the School aims to take all steps which are reasonably practical to meet its responsibility for providing a safe and healthy workplace for Sundial Court residents and staff. Sundial Court residents, as well as staff, are expected to set an example in safe behaviour and to be vigilant in Health and Safety measures.

7.1. In the interest of Health & Safety, participants under the age of 18 are not permitted to use kitchens (unless an exemption on medical grounds has been agreed in advance with the Short Courses Team).

7.2. All participants under the age of 18 are required to book dinner in Sundial as the use of kitchens is not permitted. They can also be escorted to the nearest stores by a Chaperone.

7.3. Animals are not permitted on School premises, except for guide dogs for disabled guests and authorised visitors.

7.4. No Sundial Court resident shall wilfully damage, or wrongfully treat as his or her own, any property owned or leased by the School. Sundial Court residents will be required to make good in whole or in part, to the satisfaction of the School, any damage of this kind that he or she causes, in addition to any other penalty imposed.

7.5. No Sundial Court resident shall wilfully damage, or wrongfully treat as his or her own, the property of any other person on School premises. The School accepts no responsibility for private property lost or damaged on School premises.

7.6. Furniture, equipment and other property owned or leased by the School must not be removed from the building without proper authority. Anything moved in contravention of this regulation may be recovered without notice by authorised staff. Those responsible may be liable for recovery costs.

7.7. Residents must not use or store any naked flames (including barbeques) or use or keep candles (including unlit candles for decoration) in the bedroom or premises.

8. Smoking

8.1. Guildhall School buildings are non-smoking and candles or any other similar burning or smoldering materials are forbidden.

8.2. The School has a non-smoking policy, therefore no smoking is allowed in any part of the buildings.

8.3. Any person found smoking on the premises will be fined £100.00 and given notice to vacate Sundial Court and no refund will be given. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes smoking in the courtyards of the premises, in the rooms or out of the windows or balconies of the premises.

8.4. E-cigarettes are not permitted.

9. Drugs

9.1. Drugs are not tolerated anywhere in any part of any buildings. More information can be found on the Government's website: <https://www.gov.uk/penalties-drug-possession-dealing>.

9.2. Sundial Court residents are not allowed to use the bedrooms/flats or any of the Premises or allow any part of the bedroom to be used for any illegal or immoral purposes including the possession, supply and the misuse of drugs covered by the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.

9.3. Sundial Court residents are not allowed to bring, or keep on site any drug associated paraphernalia. Anyone found with illegal substances will be immediately reported to the Police and given notice to leave their course and the accommodation, and no refund will be given.

10. Alcohol

10.1. It is strictly prohibited for anyone aged 18 or over to buy, give to or share alcohol with participants under the age of 18. Any Sundial Court resident or non-residential participant aged 18 or over found to be or suspected of supplying under 18s with alcohol will be immediately excluded from their course and the accommodation, no refund will be issued.

10.2. It is strictly prohibited for participants under the age of 18 to buy, consume or be sold alcohol.

10.3. Any Sundial Court resident or non-residential participant under the age of 18 found with alcohol will be immediately excluded from their course and the accommodation, no refund will be issued and the resident's parents/guardians will have to make arrangements to collect the participant immediately.

11. Fire Alarm Equipment

11.1. Sundial Court residents should not abuse the Fire Alarm System or misuse the fire-fighting equipment. (Contravention of this requirement is a criminal offence and the Landlord reserves the right to report incidents to the relevant authorities and you will be asked to vacate the premises and no refund will be given.

12. Missing participant

12.1. Should a child not turn up for a lesson / not return at the required time / go missing we will follow the School's missing student protocol which includes contacting parents/guardians and also the police in cases where the child is not located after search and phone contact attempts. It is therefore vital that we have two contact numbers for those with parental responsibility for a child to ensure we can safely manage such an incident.

13. Disciplinary action

Any illegal or inappropriate behavior by a participant or if a participant is in breach of the Code of Conduct or the Sundial Code of Conduct will result in serious and disciplinary action being taken by the Short Courses Team.

The Chaperones Team will report any issues arising in the residential accommodation to the Short Courses Team.

Actions can result in the immediate exclusion of participants from the course and the accommodation; no refund will be issued. They may also from be banned from attending further Guildhall School Short Courses.

If the participant is under the age of 18, it is the responsibility of the participant's parents/guardians to make arrangements to collect the participant immediately.

Appendix 3: Online Short Courses and Forums Etiquette

Participants and their families should bear in mind that the Guildhall School of Music & Drama is an adult environment. We expect responsible, reasonable and sensible conduct from all our participants.

It is essential that all participants are safe and behave in line with Guildhall School's expectations as can be found in the Online Short Courses and Forums below.

1. Participants agree that they will not record, reproduce, download, modify, re-publish, sub-license, sell, share, broadcast, transmit, make available, disseminate or distribute in any way any of the content provided as a part of their Online Short Course. Any redistribution or reproduction of part or all of the contents of the courses in any form is prohibited.
2. Participants may download and use Online Short Course materials where available and as indicated by the Short Courses team, for their own personal, non-commercial use only.
3. When uploading material, participants must ensure that they are entitled to upload this material and that this does not infringe any rights or copyright law.
4. The Forums should remain a safe space for all participants. Participants will not upload or share with other participants or tutors any material which is unlawful or unsuitable according to societal norms in the United Kingdom or our policies. This includes uploading of material that is false, obscene, sexist, racist, homophobic, defamatory, illegal, abusive, threatening, extremist, destructive (like malware, viruses, bugs, etc.) or otherwise discriminatory, offensive, disruptive or objectionable to others.
5. Although the Forums will be monitored by the Short Courses team, participants agree that we shall be under no obligation to monitor, screen or censor any of the content that they or any third party upload to the online platforms used for the short course. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we accept no responsibility for any such content.
6. We reserve the right to suspend access to the VLE or remove any material you upload or share with other students or tutors in breach of these Terms.
7. The Online Short Course materials may contain links or embedded links to third party content and websites. These links are provided for your reference only and we do not endorse the content or the operations associated with them. We have no control over such content and cannot accept any liability for such third party content. You should be aware that accessing such content will be subject to third party terms of use and privacy policies.
8. The Short Courses team will communicate the times when the Forums will be available before the start of the course.

Disciplinary action

Any illegal or inappropriate behavior by participants or if a participant is in breach of the Short Courses Code of Conduct will result in serious and disciplinary action being taken by the Short Courses team. Actions can result in the immediate exclusion of participants from the course; no refund will be issued. They may also from be banned from attending further Guildhall School Short Courses.

If you have any concern please contact the Short Courses Team:

Phone line:

+44 (0)20 7382 2310

+44 (0)20 7614 9850

Office hours: 9.30am - 5pm BST Monday – Friday, excluding bank holidays.

Email:
shortcourses@gsmd.ac.uk