Profile

Currently studying Production Arts at Guildhall School of Music and Drama, I have a growing passion in Sound and Music. I have been singing & songwriting since age 10, and recently began releasing music on streaming services. I am a hard-working confident person who is determined to learn, I also love meeting and speaking to new people. I strive to always help people with a smile and I work well as part of a team. I am very organised and have excellent time management.
